New Again

Exploring Found Objects

ARTSWorcester
Members Exhibition
March 19 — May 1, 2010

Opening Reception, March 19, 2010
6:00 to 8:00 pm

For New Again, ARTSWorcester members are invited to present intriguing and unconventional works of art created from, or inspired by, found objects.

Found Object Art explores concepts of identity re-designation by dignifying commonplace objects as works of fine art through the choice of the artist.

New Again is an opportunity to re-appropriate natural, recycled, and found materials into new works of art. By placing objects within a new context, artists can provide these objects with new meaning beyond their originally intended function or purpose. New Again encourages artists to consider how perception can shift when the context surrounding an everyday object is changed.
